To Whom It May Concern:

The Ranchos de Placitas Property Owners Association (RdPPOA) is not an HOA as defined by the New Mexico HOA Act as it neither owns property nor has mandatory fees, both of which are required for the purposes of the Act. Property owners have no legal obligation to RdPPOA nor any expenses owed.

Information on the recorded restrictive covenants for each unit is available on our website, <https://www.ranchosdeplacitas.org>.

Please let me know if you need additional information.

Respectfully,

Craig Kendall
